Dear Mr. Udani,

I am happy to inform that M/s. Spacesense, New Delhi with the support of Embassy of India in Kazakhstan is organizing an exclusive 'Great India Bazar' at Atakent Exhibition Centre, Almaty, Kazakhstan from August 14-22, 2010.

There has been a steady expansion of trade between India and Kazakhstan in recent years. Bilateral relations were raised to the level of Strategic Partnership during the visit of Kazakhstan President Nazarbayev to India in January 2009 during which he also participated as the Guest of Honour at our 60th Republic Day Celebrations.

During May 2009, the Indian Trade Promotion Organization (ITPO) in association with the Embassy of India successfully organized an exclusive India Expo in Kazakhstan. More than seventy five thousand visitors visited the three day India Expo. People in Kazakhstan have great affinity for Indian goods/artifacts and enthusiastically participate in all events linked with India.

The Great India Bazar is being organized to provide a platform and to showcase and generate a market for Indian handicrafts, carpets, home furnishings, readymade garments, leather goods, gem and jewellery etc manufactured by small and medium enterprises. It is an initiative by M/s Spacesense, a private sector organization of India to promote the cause of small and medium scale enterprises which merits encouragement. The Embassy of India in Kazakhstan fully supports this endeavour of M/s. Spacesense.

I am confident that the Great India Bazar will draw a large number of businessmen, entrepreneurs and buyers and help to further promote trade and business ties between the two countries. I would, therefore, recommend that all your ancillary organizations may be encouraged to participate in the above show in a befitting way.

With regards,

(Ram Singh)
